Taku: Tomorrow is a holiday. Do you have any plans?

Lily: I am going to visit my grandparents in Yokohama.

Taku: Sounds nice. What are you going to do there?

Lily: I'm going to play shogi with my grandfather. He plays it very well, so I want to learn from him.

Taku: Oh, really? How did your grandfather learn shogi?

Lily: He is Japanese. As a child in Japan, he learned shogi from his father. When he was 30 years old, he moved to America for work. Shogi is his hobby, and he has been playing it for about 50 years.

Taku: I see. By the way, what are you going to do with your grandmother?

Lily: We are going to bake an apple pie. She is good at baking apple pies. I'm looking forward to eating it with them.

Taku: Wow, that sounds great! Is your grandmother Japanese too?

Lily: No, she is American. But she speaks Japanese very well.

Taku: That's amazing!

Lily: If you are free tomorrow, you can come with me. Would you like to join me?

Taku: Really? Are your grandparents okay with that?

Lily: Of course. They said, "You can bring a friend with you."

Taku: I'm so happy! I'd love to play shogi with your grandfather, too!

Questions:

- (1) Where is Lily going to go tomorrow?
- (2) How long has Lily's grandfather been playing shogi?
- (3) What is Lily looking forward to?
