I.

(1)

Taku: Today, a new month has started. I feel time flies so quickly.

Nancy: That's right. There are 12 months in a year, but this month is the shortest one.

Taku: Yes, that's true. March will be here soon.

Question: Which month are they talking about?

(2)

Taku: Hi, Nancy. Shall we watch a movie together this Sunday?

Nancy: Sorry, I'm busy that day. I'm going to study in the library with my friends in the morning.

After lunch, I'll go to the art museum with my father.

Taku: I see. How about next Saturday afternoon?

Nancy: OK. I want to watch an Indian movie! And then, let's have dinner at an Indian restaurant!

Taku: Sounds good!

Question: Where will Nancy go on Sunday afternoon?

(3)

Taku: Oh, that train has just left. We missed it!

Nancy: It's OK. Shall we take the next express train?

Taku: Yes, let's do that. The next train will come in 10 minutes, right?

Nancy: No, that train isn't an express train. It will take longer.

Taku: Really?

Nancy: We should take the express train at 11:00. We have to wait for 25 minutes from now.

Question: What time is it now?

(4)

Nancy: Thank you for practicing tennis with my little brother Bob.

Taku: No problem. I had a great time.

Nancy: I have just finished making the cake. Let's eat it together.

Taku: Wow, was this cake made by you?

Nancy: Yes! I learned how to make it from my mother.

Taku: It looks delicious! Can I eat it now?

Nancy: Wait. You and Bob, wash your hands first! After eating, shall we do our homework?

Taku: OK! Sounds good.
