Mark: Hi, Mina! I'm interested in the history of our town. Is there a good place to learn about it?

Mina: Sure. We have a historical museum. Its name is the Ajsai Town History Museum. Let's go together.

Mark: Great! Where is it?

Mina: It's across from the library.

Mark: Is it open every day?

Mina: Almost. It opens at nine a.m. and closes at six p.m., but it doesn't open on Tuesdays.

Mark: I see. How much is it for two tickets?

Mina: We are junior high school students, so two tickets are seven hundred yen. But it's free on the second Sunday of every month.

Mark: Really? Oh, this weekend is the second Sunday. Let's go together this Sunday.

Mina: Sounds good.

Mark: Where and when will we meet?

Mina: Let's meet at the bus stop in front of the station at nine a.m. We will take a bus to the museum.

Mark: OK.
